

Purpose of the Think Family Learning Networks

A key objective of the County Durham Think Family Learning Networks is to facilitate practitioners from a wide range of Adult, Children and Health Services to develop their knowledge, skills and expertise to deliver effective 'think family' interventions and support. To support this work we would like to invite practitioners and managers to a quarterly 'Think Family Learning Network' to share good practice, learn what's working and learn what we may need to do differently to ensure all our services deliver effective support to vulnerable families.
