

Human Life Cycle

baby

toddler

child

teenager

adult

senior

Key Vocabulary

foetus	A baby that is still developing in the womb adolescence	The social and emotional stage of development between childhood and adulthood gestation	The process or time when prenatal development takes place before birth life expectancy	The length of time, on average, that an animal is expected to live for puberty	The physical stage of development between childhood and adulthood adulthood	The stage of development when a human is fully grown and mature

Key Learning

To recognise the different stages of human development
To know the changes that occur from birth to 4 years old To know about the changes that occur during old age To know why we go through puberty To know about a key scientist in the field of child development i.e. Jean Piaget